

Daniel N. Ramirez

Partner

Board-Certified in Labor and Employment Law, Daniel “Danny” Ramirez strategically represents public and private employers in labor, employment, and immigration matters. Danny’s successful track record includes providing sound advice to businesses on HR issues, implementing best practice initiatives, conducting internal investigations, representing employers during government investigations, and strategically defending companies, government agencies, and educational institutions in litigation, arbitration, and appeals. He also regularly represents companies during high-stake ICE raids and helps them implement Form I-9 best practices. Danny’s clients include Fortune 500 clients, government agencies, colleges, and small, mid-size and large privately-owned companies.

As an alumni of The University of Texas Law School, Danny has been repeatedly honored with the title of Super Lawyer and is AV Rated - the highest peer rating standard. Danny’s unique skill set allows him to aggressively defend his clients in litigation, while maintaining a strategic focus on the client’s best interests. Danny understands that litigation can create a substantial expense and distraction for many of his clients. Danny’s client-centric approach allows him to promptly identify his client’s needs and work towards obtaining swift, favorable dismissal of the case or resolution when necessary. Clients value that Danny is an experienced litigator that is able to offer proactive counseling and cost-effective solutions.

As a 2nd generation U.S. Navy service member, Danny’s professional life and community activities reflect his commitment to service and hard work. Danny previously chaired the Harris County Sheriff’s Civil Service Commission and City of Houston’s Civil Service Commission. He has also served as president of the Hispanic Bar Association of Houston, where he continues as a Board Member. Prior to practicing law, Danny was awarded a Certificate of Special U.S. Congressional Recognition for his work on behalf of military families. He is an alumni of Leadership Houston and is often coaching his son in soccer.
